The award marks a continued recognition of EIP's consistent strength in European litigation as it's the third year in a row that EIP has won in this category.

Magnus Hallin, CEO at EIP said: "We are proud to be recognised once again at the Managing IP EMEA Awards. The award is a testament to our team's unwavering commitment to excellence and our innovative approach to IP litigation. It is not just a reflection of our expertise, but also of the trust our clients place in us to protect their most valuable assets. We are grateful for this honour and it motivates us to continue setting the bar high in the industry."
