

EIP

EIP shortlisted for four Managing IP Awards EMEA 2023

EIP has been shortlisted in four categories in the Managing IP Awards EMEA 2023.

EIP is again nominated as European Patent Disputes Firm of the Year, which it won at last year's awards. It is also nominated for UK Patent Disputes Firm of the Year award, which it previously won for four years from 2018 to 2021.

Gary Moss who recently moved to EIP Chairman following 11 years at Head of EIP Litigation, is shortlisted for the UK Practitioner of the Year award, while Partner and Head of Düsseldorf office, Christof Höhne, is shortlisted for the Practitioner of the Year for Germany award.

The Managing IP Awards recognise remarkable achievements and developments in the previous 12 months. The awards will take place in London on Wednesday 21 June. The full list of firms and individuals shortlisted is here.